

You choose Mayor Dave's follicle fate!

IT'S Movember and men across the borough are sporting well, and not so well, groomed moustaches to raise awareness and funds for men's health problems including prostate cancer and depression.

And Bedford's top man, Dave Hodgson, the Mayor of Bedford, has teamed up with the Times & Citizen to let readers choose which style of moustache he will wear to support the cause.

He said: "The Movember campaign raises vital funds and awareness of men's health issues, and submitting myself to the mercy of this vote is a small price to pay in support of this excellent cause."

"The campaign raises vast amounts of money for treatment, research and education, powered by the simple fact that people all over the world ask friends or work colleagues "what is that in aid of."

"This helps in the important task of raising awareness about the health risks that men face."

So there you have it, Dave Hodgson, the Mayor of Bedford is relying on you to decide how his facial hair looks, and is willing to go with whatever you vote for.

So whether you prefer your mayor to have a soul patch, a goatee or a handle bar get voting today.

To vote for your favourite moustache email your choice to editorial@timesandcitizen.co.uk

- please title your email MOVEMBER DAVE

You can also place your vote, and donate to the Movember charity by popping into the Times & Citizen's office, in Mill Street from today. Votes will be counted on November 22.

You can also support Dave's moustache campaign by donating at www.mobro.co/mayordave

And pick up a copy of the T&C on November 24 to see how Dave looks with the winning moustache style.
