Fear & Misery of the Third Reich

Description Our task is very difficult, but it's the greatest one there is. To free the human race from its oppressors. Let that out of our sights and the whole human race will re-lapse into barbarism' Scene Productions present Brecht's touching and profound collection of playlets, portraying the morally defunct and distressing realities of the Nazi regime in Germany. First performed in 1938, it is now one of Brecht's most famous plays and widely regarded as a classic of political theatre. At times both shocking and humorous, it communicates the suspicion, anxiety, betrayal and dread experienced by people as the power of Hitler grew.
